

Kudelski Security Named 2020 LogRhythm European Partner of the Year

Company recognized for outstanding sales following the expansion of managed security services (MSS) across Europe

Cheseaux-sur-Lausanne, Switzerland and Phoenix (AZ), USA, March 9, 2021 – Kudelski Security, the cybersecurity division within the Kudelski Group (SIX:KUD.S), announced today it has been named LogRhythm’s 2020 European Sales Partner of the Year for the second year in a row. Kudelski Security and its Managed Security Services (MSS) business were recognized by LogRhythm for outstanding sales performance throughout the year.

“Kudelski Security is a leading player in managed security with a strong focus on Managed Detection & Response (MDR) and delivery across their services was exceptional throughout 2020,” said Kev Eley, VP Sales Europe at LogRhythm. “As demand increases for their managed security offerings, we are confident that our long-standing partnership will strengthen and we will continue our collaboration in empowering organizations to protect their assets more effectively while reducing business risk.

LogRhythm has been a strategic technology partner for Kudelski Security globally and one of the technologies integrated with the infrastructure that supports the company’s Cyber Fusion Centers in Switzerland and the United States.

Speaking on the award, Kudelski Security’s EMEA General Manager Philippe Borloz said: “We are delighted to be named as LogRhythm’s partner of the year for the second year in a row. This is a recognition of our dramatic growth in Europe, despite the challenges posed by the global pandemic. We look forward to continuing our partnership and deliver solutions that give our joint clients the rapid threat detection and response tools needed to address security risks.”

Kudelski Security provides companies across industries with an effective and scalable managed security service that helps relieve the burden on CIOs and CISOs, while enabling them to cost-effectively identify, contain, and remediate the increasing level of security threats. Last year, Kudelski Security expanded its business into Germany and France to meet the growing demand for its industry-leading managed security solutions. The company has experienced rapid growth across Europe, adding new clients in Austria, France, Germany, the Netherlands, the UK and Switzerland, with plans for continued growth in the coming year.

The LogRhythm accolade is the latest in a growing body of global recognition endorsing the success of Kudelski Security’s approach and partner-first service, including from IDC, Gartner, and Forrester. In August, Kudelski Security was recognized as a leader in Forrester’s “Midsize Managed Security Services Providers \(MSSPs\), Q3 2020.”
