

Kudelski Security Appoints Jacques Boschung as Senior Vice President & General Manager for EMEA

Leveraging more than 25 years of experience in leading large-scale technology organizations, Jacques Boschung will be responsible for driving the growth of Kudelski Security in Europe

Cheseaux-sur-Lausanne, Switzerland and Phoenix (AZ), USA – September 20, 2022 – Kudelski Security, the cybersecurity division within the Kudelski Group (SIX:KUD.S), today announced the appointment of Jacques Boschung as Senior Vice President & General Manager for EMEA. He succeeds to Philippe Borloz, who retired after almost five years of successfully developing the business across EMEA.

Jacques Boschung will be responsible for driving growth for Kudelski Security in Europe, managing the company's business strategy and the relationships with high-profile clients. As part of its continued European expansion, Kudelski Security recently announced for instance the launch of a new Cyber Fusion Center (CFC) in Madrid as well as the opening of a new office in Zürich.

Jacques Boschung brings more than 25 years of experience in leading large-scale technology organizations in EMEA as well as in the US.

"We are happy to welcome Jacques in our team", said Andrew Howard, CEO of Kudelski Security. "With his strong track record in developing sales and leading large-scale technology organizations, he brings us the skills to address our rapid development in Europe and meet the rising customer demand".

Prior to joining to Kudelski Security, Jacques Boschung worked for Inovalon, where he was President and General Manager of their Payer Business, a portfolio of cloud-based SaaS solutions for large US health insurance companies. In this role, he was responsible for the management, product portfolio, delivery, operations, sales, client success, and overall performance of what is the largest segment of Inovalon's business.

Prior to Inovalon, he served in several executive roles within Dell Technologies from 2004 through 2018, most recently servicing as Senior Vice President responsible for Dell Technologies Global Alliances and the $1.4 billion business of Dell EMC's Telco partnerships within the EMEA regions. He also worked for Hewlett Packard and IBM.

"I look forward to joining the team and helping pursue our growth in Europe," said Jacques Boschung. "With rising cyber threats, the European cybersecurity market continues to grow. Kudelski Security, notably with its unique and tailored-made approach to Managed Detection and Response (MDR) and a powerful portfolio of Advisory services, is perfectly positioned to address the rising customer demand."

Jacques Boschung is also the non-executive chairman of Bluefactory Fribourg (BFF), the innovation incubator of the City and of the Canton of Fribourg (Switzerland). He holds BS and master's degrees in physics from the University of Lausanne and conducted his master's thesis at the Laboratory for Nuclear Engineering of the Swiss Institute of Technology (EPFL).
